Lead: Emonye Olayinka Adekwu, SAN, FCI Arb

Senior Advocate of Nigeria | Barrister of England and Wales | Fellow, Chartered Institute of Arbitrators

24 Law Chambers provides specialist senior Nigerian counsel support for energy, power, oil and gas, infrastructure, regulatory, dispute, enforcement and government-interface matters.

Where We Add Value

Energy and infrastructure matters in Nigeria often sit at the intersection of contracts, regulation, public-sector interface, stakeholder management, payment risk, project delivery and enforcement. We help clients identify legal risk early, preserve leverage, pursue recovery, manage disputes and communicate Nigerian law issues clearly to management, boards, lenders, investors and foreign counsel.

Oil and gas • Operator, partner, contractor and service disputes • Regulatory and government-interface issues • Host community, stakeholder and project risk support	Power and electricity • Regulatory, licence, market-rule and enforcement issues • Sector debt, receivables and payment disputes • DisCo, GenCo, investor and regulator-facing advisory
Infrastructure and construction • Payment, delay, variation and termination disputes • Project risk and dispute-readiness reviews • Arbitration, litigation and enforcement	Cross-border support • Nigerian law opinions for foreign counsel • Management-ready risk notes • Nigeria-UK legal coordination
