Lead: Emonye Olayinka Adekwu, SAN, FCI Arb

Senior Advocate of Nigeria | Barrister of England and Wales | Fellow, Chartered Institute of Arbitrators

24 Law Chambers is a Nigerian law firm providing senior strategic legal counsel for high-value public-sector recovery, energy and infrastructure disputes, regulatory enforcement, arbitration, litigation, debt recovery, insolvency and Nigeria-UK cross-border legal coordination. The Firm is led by Emonye Olayinka Adekwu, SAN, FCI Arb.

What We Are Built For

We are built for matters where legal strategy, senior judgment, institutional credibility and execution matter. Our role is to help clients convert legal rights, regulatory positions and commercial claims into practical outcomes: recovery, risk reduction, settlement, enforcement, regulatory clarity or strategic advantage.

Public-sector recovery

- Statutory debt, public receivables and institutional claims
- Legal validation, demand, settlement and enforcement
- Transparent reporting and compliant fee structures

Litigation, arbitration and enforcement

- Commercial litigation and urgent protective relief
- Domestic and international arbitration support
- Judgment and award recognition/enforcement in Nigeria

Energy and infrastructure

- Power, oil and gas, construction and project disputes
- Regulatory and government-interface strategy
- Contract, payment, stakeholder and enforcement issues

Nigeria-UK counsel

- Nigerian law opinions for foreign counsel
- Local counsel support for UK/Scottish firms
- Cross-border dispute, asset and enforcement coordination

Leadership: Emonye Olayinka Adekwu, SAN, FCIArb

Emonye Olayinka Adekwu, SAN, FCIArb leads the Firm's strategic mandates practice. He is a Senior Advocate of Nigeria, Barrister of England and Wales, and Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. His dual qualification enables him to advise on Nigerian law and local realities while presenting issues in a manner aligned with English common-law reasoning, international counsel expectations, board-level decision-making and cross-border dispute strategy.

His work is especially suited to matters involving Nigerian court and arbitration strategy, public-sector recovery, oil and gas, power, infrastructure, regulatory interface, enforcement and Nigeria-UK coordination.
